

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This letter serves to confirm that I have known and worked with Kobus Hurter, who is the Managing Director for AgricultSURE (Pty), based in South Africa. I was working then as the General Manager for AFGRI Uganda Ltd, itself being a subsidiary of AFGRI S A Ltd.

My name is Mr Edmond Chiviru, and I am still based in Uganda, where I worked as the General Manager for AFGRI Uganda from 2013 up to 2017. I was responsible for setting up the AFGRI Investments in Uganda, and getting them to operational status, with funding from AFGRI S A. AgricultSURE was contracted as an Agricultural Development Consultant for AFGRI projects in Africa, and we traveled together with Kobus Hurter, throughout Uganda looking at agricultural development opportunities. We were basically interested in the local people and their business culture, the land tenureship system, land usage, government laws, community perspectives and perception of development projects and their potential. All these were critical factors that we considered before identifying potential developmental joint-venture partners as well as choosing the appropriate sites based on optimal resources, with less entry and establishment costs, for viable projects that would benefit not only the investors and implementers, but the community of operation as well.

Please do not hesitate to come back for more information or further clarifications where necessary.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Edmond Chiviru

Former General Manager, AFGRI Uganda Ltd
